Complete Man 190

Dedication

Reverend Anthony M. Larkin, S.S.E.

It is most fitting that a class befriend its advisor and dorm proctor. Indeed, with a man like Father Larkin, this becomes both a pleasure and a reward; for "Pop" Larkin, as we affectionately call him, has developed a true fatherly interest in his "boys". He considers setting a good example as a gentleman and respected priest to be his most important role on campus. Through his actions and advice, he tries to impart to us his sense of duty, of putting things in their proper place, which he considers so necessary in a mature man.

Yet Father Larkin is more than this. His avid interests in politics, social and spiritual affairs, skiing, golf, and general clean living, reflect in him the real meaning of the Complete Man. It is with this in mind that we, the members of the Senior Class, fondly dedicate our 1965 Shield to Reverend Anthony M. Larkin, S.S.E.

The aim of St. Michael's College is to develop each student into the Christian ideal of the Complete Man. A Big Brother sees that each freshman becomes acquainted with St. Michael's, its traditions and its aims. Once settled in his new environment the Michaelman becomes subject to the guidance of the Professional Man — his professors, counselors, and administrators.

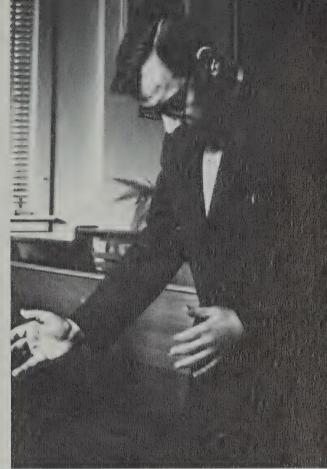

The guidance of others, however, does not become the mainstay in nurturing a boy into the Complete Man. He must transcend all adolescent propensities and take part in the co-curricular and extracurricular activities which are an essential part of the college and his growth. Active participation becomes the focal point of social adjustment and elevates the passive onlooker into a wealthier and experienced Social Man. Yet mental and social development do not constitute the college ideal of the Complete Man. Physical growth is but another essential segment toward completion of manhood. St. Michael's offers a variety of competitive activities where each student is given the chance to show his physical prowess and enhance his growth as a Physical Man. This stage in the development toward the Complete Man is more than cheering the team on in a moment of victory or joining the group in a post-game rendezvous. It is the joining in, and being with, the Michaelman Spirit no matter where it may be. This is the college ideal at its very best.

Commencement in June is but a formal sign that four hard years in the continual development of the Complete Man have finally drawn to a close. And while the St. Michael's graduate takes leave of his surroundings, to find his proper station in society, St. Michael's College will always remain . . . to perpetuate the evercontinuing cycle of the Complete Man.

SAINT MICHAEL'S COLLEGE STUDENT FORUM

V.P. F. Geier

"Doc" Jacobs speaks at the Forum sponsored Annual Awards Banquet.

Forum co-sponsored this year's Pep Rally prior to the first basketball game.

The Student Forum is the voice of the student body at St. Michael's College. Its primary function is to act as a liaison between the administration and the student body.

The success of the Student Forum this year is the result of President Richard Grace who realized that leadership and the understanding of problems are the requisites for successful programs. Among its accomplishments are the Library and Curriculum Committees, both of which were designed to give students more voice in the future plans of St. Michael's College.

Under the guidance of "Rusty," the Forum has just begun to realize its potential in making the weight of student opinion known to the administration. This was observed in a first invitation to the Dean of Studies to be questioned on the academic policies of the school.

The Student Forum of 1964-65 will be remembered for opening the door so that student opinion might be heard in all phases of SMC life.

"Who's Who" was conceived 27 years ago with the idea of creating one national basis of recognition for college students. Recognition by this organization means that the student is first officially recommended by the university or college he attends, and then accepted by the organization itself. The criteria used in making selections are academic, citizenship, extracurricular, service to the school, and promise of future success.

This year the class of '65 selected twenty members who were deemed worthy of this honor. Each member receives a certificate of recognition awarded by the organization, and recognition in the annual publication for the year he was selected.

"Who's Who" is designed not only as a means of compensation for outstanding effort and achievement but also as a goal to inspire greater effort and a higher standard of excellence in all students.

Membership in Alpha Epsilon Delta is a recognition of superior scholastic achievement of pre-medical students. The Society affords one the opportunity to develop a well-rounded personality, initiative, leadership, and self-education through participation in its activities.

Discussions, utilizing for topics the provocative articles from the weekly review, Commonweal, were held each week. To provide for varied views, a faculty member was invited to participate in each discussion. Since truth is not circumscribed and limited to one specialized field, it must not be restricted by narrow vocational patterns. This program enabled pre-medical students to develop habits of critical reasoning in areas not directly related to them as prospective physicians, but to the significance of being men. Through this program, the National Pre-Medical Honor Society of St. Michael's College feels assured that, to a significant degree, its motto, "Truth I Pursue," was truly achieved.

Phi Eta Sigma

St. Michael's College

Phi Eta Sigma, a national freshman honor society, founded in 1923 at the University of Illinois, was established to promote a higher standard of learning and to encourage unique scholastic attainment among freshmen in institutions of higher learning. The Society has national recognition as one of a very limited number of purely scholastic honor societies as distinguished from a large number of honorary and recognition societies. A general average of ninety percent during freshman year with no grades below B, is a basic criterion for membership. The society has a chapter at only one other Catholic institution, the Catholic University of America.

In the last few years, Phi Eta Sigma has undertaken a tutorial program for prospective Freshman candidates. On the advice of professors, selected freshmen are tutored, free of charge, in those subjects which are keeping him out of Phi Eta Sigma.

The Alpha Nu Chapter of the Delta Epislon Sigma was the first National Scholastic Honor Society on campus. Founded in 1938, it came to St. Michael's in 1939 with the late Dr. Jeremiah Durick, the Rev. Edmund J. Hamel, S.S.E., and Dr. Francis Quinlan as the original Chapter members.

Delta Epsilon Sigma is fostered at St. Michaels to elevate the general tone of the campus and to encourage studying and graduate work. It recognizes academic accomplishments and provides an intellectual meeting ground for its members. Here they are able to meet with their professors on an informal basis and discuss scholarly activities. Those applying for membership, therefore, must not only have a good moral character but also a record of outstanding scholastic achievement for four years of undergraduate work.

Since its nativity in 1957, the Crown and Sword Honorary Society, led by distinguished Juniors and Seniors, has noticeably progressed from a service organization to that of campus coterie for worthwhile activities. Traditionally, The Crown and Sword Society has coordinated Freshman Week, the 'Big Brother' program, Parents' Weekend, and has served as ushers for religious, social and athletic events. Founded primarily to assist the administration, the society, under dedicated and assiduous leadership of its president, has instituted many innovations. In attempting to serve, not only college, but also the friends of St. Michael's, a scholarship fund was begun in the fall of 1963 for an underprivileged Vermont student. The Society annually raises $1,000 for this worthy endeavor.

Highlighting the current year, The Crown and Sword Society has brought forth an array of noteworthy accomplishments. Under the auspices of the Society, the Booster Club was formed to work with the children at St. Joseph's Orphanage. The Society has acted as student coordinators, and personal aids to religious dignitaries present for the Workshop in Ecumenism. Rouding out its many activities was "Doc Jacobs Night," a festive event honoring "Doc," the "Dean of New England Athletics."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Christmas Party at St. Joseph's Orphanage. . . .

Soon to enter its sixth year, the John Verret Council of the Knights of Columbus, is the largest organization on campus. Under the leadership of Grand Knight Gil Regan, the K of C has done much to foster their "Six-Point Program," especially in Catholic, Fraternal, and Youth Activities. Among these were the Halloween, Christmas, and Easter parties for the St. Joseph orphans. They also purchased tobboggans for these needy children.

The Society helped raise money for the Heart Fund and donated to the Elizabeth City Tutorial Project. After holding a successful Scholarship Dance, it was able to award a $100 scholarship to Brother Joseph Ruggiero.

The Knights also sponsored such speakers as Dr. Robert O'Brien, Fr. Moses Anderson, S.S.E., Judge William O'Brien and Governor Philip Hoff. A Communion Breakfast was held at which Father Branon, of U.V.M.'s Newman Club spoke. An extensive membership drive this year resulted in over 100 new members being initiated into the Society.

The St. Michael's College Drama Club, formed in the fall of 1962, owes its success to the initiative, hard work, and determination of its members under the guidance of its director, Mr. Donald Rathgeb.

Starting with hardly any money, equipment, or student interest, the Club managed to put on a full-length Shakespearean play, "The Comedy of Errors," plus two shorter plays. Their success, acclaimed by both student body and the administration, enabled the Club to procure more money for future productions.

The second year saw the production of the full-length musical, "Brigadoon," which incorporated for the first time the combined talents of the St. Michael's and Trinity Drama Clubs. Under the direction of Mr. Donald Rathgeb and Dr. William Tortolano, the play was acclaimed 'superb' by all. This year, the Club has continued in its vein of providing good entertainment for all through its productions of Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing" and "Everyman." Plans for the future include a musical comedy and a modern play in verse.

Again this year St. Michael's College Glee Club has distinguished itself as an outstanding collegiate choral group in the East. Realizing that the true spirit of St. Michael's is to achieve discipline among the arts, the Glee Club under the direction of Dr. William Tortolano, has expanded its repertoire to include such unusual works as the "Missa Prima" sung in Chinese, "The Song of the Meadow Land" in Russian, and Randall Thompson's "Tarantella." The musical capabilities of the club were also enhanced by the arrival of the accomplished pianist Mr. Albert Wasmus. He provided not only a fine solo concert, but also brilliant accompaniment in the Brahms "Requiem."

Much time was spent in preparation of such joint numbers as J. S. Bach's "Christmas Oratorio" (Trinity College), Bartok's "Four Slovak Folk Songs" (Wheaton), Brahms' "Liebeslieder Waltzer" (Newton College and College of New Rochelle), and Brahms' "The German Requiem" in its entirety (Marymount). Topping last year's successful tour to Washington, D.C., the Club climaxed its season by performing at the world renowned Jordan Hall of the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston. This concert was especially meaningful to Dr. Tortolano, marking a triumphant return to his Alma Mater.

These accomplishments of the Glee Club are rightfully attributed to the 60 men who expend a great deal of time and energy to attain perfection. The resulting superior performances and good will created are well worth the 90% perspiration and 10% inspiration."

CHOIR

The Choir, under the direction of Dr. William Tortolano, completed the year with an entirely new repertoire and a record of varied activities. The recent changes in the liturgy required the learning of a new set of music for the Mass. Having mastered this, the Choir turned to more difficult concert music including parts from a Chinese Mass, and completed Jean Langlais' modern recreation of the "Mass in Ancient Style" which calls for the use of both male and female voices.

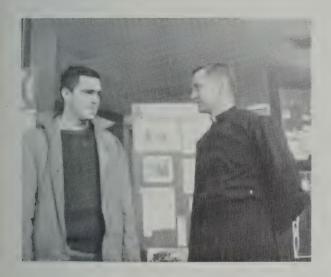

On campus, the Choir sang at the Mass of the Holy Spirit, the President's Day Mass, and during the two-day Ecumenical Conference in February. In addition to this, the Choir's year was highlighted by two joint concerts with Colby Junior College of New London, New Hampshire, where the Langlais Mass was featured. The Choir also sang at Parents' Weekend and hosted a meeting of the Vermont Chapter of the American Guild of Organists on the college campus.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY

The Holy Name Society was organized in October, 1962, to promote the spiritual welfare of the students. Its present membership is approximately 175 students. The helpful guidance of Rev. Nelson B. Ziter, S.S.E., is greatly responsible for the success of the society.

Among the more successful projects within the Society's spiritual program are the annual Student Retreat, the Catechetical work in the schools of the Burlington area, the Clothing Drive for the Southern Missions, and work at St. Joseph's Orphanage. Also under the auspices of the Holy Name Society are the lay readers and Mass servers, Vocation Week, Discussion Clubs, and Forty Hours Devotion.

This year, the Holy Name Society of St. Michael's College became a member of the New England Region Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and was chosen the Director Unit for the State of Vermont.

Rev. R. Doherty, S.S.E., participating in Vocation Week activities, sponsored by Holy Name Society.

THE QUEST

The QUEST is the student literary magazine of St. Michael's College. Its purpose is to publish the best creative efforts of the student body. Introduced in 1960, a "pilot" edition, the magazine marked a renaissance in campus literary life. The following spring, the first edition of the QUEST was published. Since that time the magazine has been published regularly and the quality of the issues has risen in proportion to the growing student interest.

One of the features of the magazine is the sole responsibility of the editorial staff for its content. The QUEST thus represents a credit to the artistic maturity of the students at the college. Each in-coming editorial staff is selected and screened by its predecessor on the basis of critical and creative achievement in intellectual endeavor.

This year, the QUEST featured some prize-winning poetry and several excellent pieces of short fiction. Its future success seems certain in light of the increasing interest of the student body.

BUSINESS FORUM

Thursday evening meetings are held in S 108.

Future businessmen of tomorrow discuss business problems of today.

Due to the tremendous pressures and responsibilities that have been placed upon the modern businessman, the Business Forum has established for its objective the betterment of all Michaelmen who intend to enter the business world. With the presentation of speakers in such areas as advertising sales, insurance, and the stock market the members are afforded a greater acquaintance with those fields of interest which may have a stimulating effect on them in their future years.

Aside from the various speakers and movies, the Business Forum also offers an opportunity by which its members may participate actively. This lies in the very popular stock contest. Each October, a member is given an imaginary $10,000 to buy stock which he feels will increase in value by May. That member whose stock has shown the greatest increase in value is awarded a small cash prize. This activity has not only proven to be most interesting, but it is also important because it endeavors to instill within a member an insight and understanding of the inner workings of the stock market.

To the Editor:

As a graduating Senior, I would like to confirm the claims to excellence attributed to St. Michael's College. Just about every graduating Senior would admit an undercurrent of anxiety and bitterness in existence on campus. Most of it is temporary and from that segment of the Class as I will be in June. Many professors will claim that you will not appreciate what St. Michael's has done for you until many years after graduation. If you work and keep an open mind, this advice will be borne out.

Believing that the college newspaper should be a main source of intellectual stimulation on campus, the editors of "The Michaelman'' have worked towards this goal with unflagging vigor. The result was an outstanding series of issues which weekly assessed such problems as the library, the pamphlet rack, and the Student Forum.

Since "The Michaelman" is published "by and for the students," all are encouraged to join its staff. Extra emphasis has been placed on the letters to the editor, with all students being urged to air their opinions. In addition, two new weekly columns were introduced, "The Observer" and "Homily Grits." The former was a tr mendous success as a vehicle of controversy - but not merely controversy for its own sake: an eye was always kept to constructive criticism where needed.

At the time of the national elections, "The Michaelman" took an active part in campus politics and ran two student opinion polls, picking the winner both times.

Whether covering the on-campus or offcampus scene, this year's "Michaelman" has shown itself to be something to which its editors, its readers, and its school can

PRE-MEDICAL SOCIETY

The Pre-Medical Society serves to better inform and educate the membership in those aspects of medicine which cannot be taught in a Biology classroom or laboratory. In addition, for those Biology students who have not chosen medicine as a career, it serves to point out other career opportunities that exist within the area of the biological sciences.

The Pre-Med Society is perhaps best noted for its community services, such as co-sponsoring, with the Chemistry Society, Science Night for high school students in Vermont and northeastern New York. The State bi-annual blood drive is another service of the Society.

The Society conducts weekly meetings which feature guest speakers and movies. It also takes an annual field trip to the University of Vermont Medical School which ends its functions for the year.

The Chemistry Club offers students the opportunity to observe the application of theoretical principles to practical problems in industry. Its membership is open to all students interested in Chemistry, regardless of their concentration. Many functions were conducted periodically to implement the aims of the Society, such as, co-operation in directoring Science Night, sponsoring speakers, and the showing of movies. The Club also conducted a field trip to the Brookhaven Nuclear Laboratory on Long Island, and the members constructed a Thermal Analyzer for the analysis of clay and mineral samples.

SOCIOLOGY CLUB

The objectives of the Sociology Club are to cover work concerning sociological problems, give members practical experience in the field of sociology, and to discuss different social phenomena that occur in society.

The members attribute their success, in part, to the women of Trinity College who joined in 1953. Together they have contributed their services to projects at the St. Joseph's Child Center and in the religious training program for the mentally deficient children at the New School in Burlington. This year the members traveled to Brandon, Vermont, to the School for the Mentally Retarded. The trip was opened to all Michaelmen and Trinitarians, and provided an interesting insight to the many problems of dealing with the mentally deficient. Last year, the Club travelled to the State Prison at Windsor for another enlightening experience.

This year's officers have set up a program for tutoring potential high school drop-outs in Winooski which will be inaugurated in September, 1965.

MODERN LANGUAGE CLUB

The Modern Language Club is designed to aid St. Michael's College language students become culturally cosmopolitan. This is achieved by studying foreign cultures, particularly art appreciation.

With these objectives in mind the Modern Language Club held its second annual Foreign Film Festival featuring 400 Blows (French), Hiroshima, Mon Amour (Japanese), and La Dolce Vita (Italian). Throughout the year, the Club visited various exhibits on French culture and literature and attended a performance of Jean Giraudoux's Judith in New York City. Several outings were held in conjunction with the Flemming Museum and the French Department of the University of Vermont.

EDUCATION CLUB

The Education Club, under the leadership of President Tom Randall, has continued to provide inspiration, information and a fresh outlook on the teaching profession for all those who wish to make it a career.

Re-formed last year, the Club, under the guidance of Dr. Robert Giroux, has been important in helping future teachers become acquainted with their chosen profession.

This year, the main activities of the club have been a student National Education Association drive, a roundtable discussion, and the sending of representatives to the annual State Teachers Conference in Montpelier.

FOREIGN STUDENT PROGRAM

Prof. Lacharite oversees progress.

Prof. Boulay, Department Chairman, and Prof. O'Neill.

In 1954 Professor Ernest Boulay was invited to establish a program in English for foreign students at St. Michael's. During the ten years which followed, nearly three thousand individuals from sixty-three foreign countries have studied with the department. Races and creeds are diverse, but the purpose is universal: to acquire a practical knowledge of English, and of American culture.

With this in mind, the concentrated program in English was instituted to meet the needs of those students whose goal was to gain fluency in spoken and written English. Students enrolled in the sixteen-week program attend classes twenty hours a week. Class and laboratory periods meet a minimum of three hours a day, six days a week.

The St. Michael's approach to teaching English as a foreign language is the result of years of teaching and observation here and abroad by the department personnel. Vocabulary and pronounciation are of prime importance in the system. Thus, vocabulary is expanded rapidly, for the student must read one book each week, and make an oral report on it.

A survey of the intentions of foreign students studying English at St. Michael's indicates that more than half plan to continue as students in American institutions. This year St. Michael's has welcomed some three hundred students from more than twenty-five countries. They have included high school graduates, university undergraduates, professionals, businessmen, and missionaries.

The International Club was founded with the sole purpose of creating an international consciousness at St. Michael's. To achieve this end, the International Club, in cooperation with the foreign students, discussed political, social, religious, economic, and cultural affairs on the international level. This year topics centered on the "Congo Crisis," Hungary, and the Philippines. The Club also assists foreign students in getting adjusted to American life, which they find to be quite baffling.

St. Michael's College is an ideal polygot campus. The student body is not only from North America, but also from South America, Europe, Africa, and Asia. Through the English for Foreign Students Program, St. Michael's has come in contact with students from at least 35 different nations. The college community has been fortunate in sharing the experiences of these student ambassadors from the different nations of the world.

ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY

The Arnold Air Society is a national honorary society for outstanding AFROTC Cadets. The membership is based on character, leadership, civic responsibility, and active contribution to AFROTC. The Chaplain John Verret Squadron of the Arnold Air Society has worked to lighten the hearts of the children at St. Joseph's Orphanage, collected for the Heart Fund, and through its Speakers Bureau, has informed local high school students about their military obligations. For the college, Arnold Air has provided honor guards and ushers at important public functions. The Squadron sponsored Military Weekend in the fall and a formal Dining-In for Advanced Corps Cadets in the spring. Now that AFROTC has become voluntary, the Society will act as AFROTC recruiters on campus during Freshman Week.

A.F.R.O.T.C.

For the first time since its establishment in 1951, the St. Michael's College AFROTC Detachment #865 was placed on a voluntary basis. Under the leadership of the Professor of Air Science, Lt. Col. William Flannigan, and Cadet Colonel James Couture, the students responded with a turnout of over 380 cadets.

In announcing the change, Col. Flannigan noted that among the twenty-eight colleges and universities which have made the change over the past few years, there has been a "higher 'esprit de corps" among the participants in the ROTC programs. In this year's training program, several changes have been made, the most popular being the elimination of Leadership Lab for freshmen and sophomores during the fall semester.

As part of the modern and everchanging Air Force, scholarships will be offered for the first time in the fall. These scholarships will be offered to seven outstanding cadets among next year's Junior Class.

A special feature of the program has been the annual Final Review which takes place during Parents Weekend before an assembly or student and their families.

With eleven sophomores returning from last year, when they won the Area "A" Trick Drill Championship, the St. Michael's College AFROTC Unarmed Drill Team looked forward to an unprecedented ninth straight championship. The twenty-eight man unit, sponsored by the Arnold Air Society and under the command of Cadet Major Wayne Bordeau and Cadet Captain E. Keith Maloney, practices seven or eight hours a week perfecting its trick manoeuvers.

An impressive honor was bestowed upon them this year, when they were selected by Governor Hoff to perform in the nationally televised Inaugural Parade in Washington, D.C., as the Vermont representative. The unit was labeled "a snappy unit" by the Washington papers. Additionally the Team also performed at the Malone Winter Carnival at Malone, New York, and at such school functions as Military Weekend and Final Review.

Displaying the dedication which distinguishes it as champions, the Team gave up its Easter Vacation to prepare for the Area "A" Drill Competition in New York City. The sacrifices paid off, for the "Marching Saints" returned to campus with the New England Championship for Unarmed Drill Teams along with a first place for trick drill in the Manhattan Invitational Drill Meet.

W.S.S.E.

WSSE, now in its eleventh year of broadcasting, is a close-circuit radio station located in Miketown, on the St. Michael's campus. Run solely by the students, under the guidance of moderator William Mazur, the purpose of WSSE is two-fold: first, it is a communications medium designed to give the students a wide variety of listening pleasure; and second, an excellent place for interested students to develop their radio skills and career opportunities.

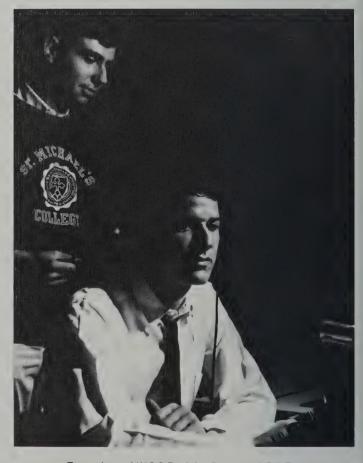

WSSE's daily schedule consists of block programming designed to give each student an hour of his favorite music, daily coverage of campus news events, and some of the best sports coverage in the area. Sports coverage reached an all time high at WSSE this year. For the first time in St. Michael's history, all away basketball games not broadcast by a downtown station, were carried by WSSE. The station is also noted for its broadcasts of important lectures, its remote broadcasts of the student forum meetings, and its series of special features, such as the hour long program on John F. Kennedy.

The Amateur Radio Club was founded in 1958 by Col. Bondurant, who conceived the idea of establishing a branch of the Military Affiliate Radio System (MARS on campus. Its purpose would be two-fold: to provide backup communication for the Air Force, and to "familiarize future Air Force officers in electronic communication." The deactivation of nearby Ethan Allen AFB made it possible to obtain its MARS radio equipment.

The Amateur Radio Club became independent of the ROTC in Sept. 1964 when the Air Force recalled its MARS transceiver. Among its achievements, the club has contacted about 40 countries as well as every state in the union. Continued from MARS days are the classes in Morse Code and theory enabling members to obtain their amateur radio licenses. The club is open to all having an interest in radio and electronics. No previous experience is necessary. A variety of both HF and VHF equipment is on hand for licensed operators, and the club hopes to add some new equipment in the future.

POLITICS CLUB

Speakers on such topics as "The Sino-Soviet Split," "The Congo," and "The Negro and New York City Education," plus a "Law Night" enabled the Politics Club to fulfill its aim of raising the level of appreciation for law, politics, and international relations on campus.

Dr. Robert V. Daniels, chairman of the UVM History Department, presented an analysis of basic differences not only between Russia and China, but also among the Eastern European Communist states which have tended toward increasing independence from Russia.

In conjunction with the International Club, a round-table discussion was held to explore the reasons for African criticism of United States resuce operations during the Congo Crisis.

Dr. Joseph Loretan, Deputy Superintendent of New York City schools, explained the present effort to end "de facto" segregation in the schools outside the South.

The "Law Night" program featured a film, "Mastery of the Law," from the University of Michigan Law School, and a lecture by Burlington Attorney George Bergman on Judaeo-Christian tradition.

DEBATING CLUB

The Debating Club which fell by the wayside in 1961 due to a lack of interest on the part of the student body, was re-activated this year under the aegis of Mr. Charles O'Brien of the Humanities Department.

Refining forensic technique with their mentor for several weeks, the novices engaged in the first of many on-campus debates, aired over WSSE. Finally, the club deemed itself ready for re-entrance into intercollegiate competition, and accepted an invitation to compete at the McGill International Debate Tournament. The four intrepid debaters who travelled to Montreal included Juniors: Gregory Koch, Loring Mackey, and Joseph McNeil, and Freshman Edmund Boutin. The Topic chosen for the tournament, "Resolved: It is not the concern of law to enforce morality." The club gave a splendid account of itself in posting an admirable 5-5 record and placing third in total points.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS CLUB

The Young Republican Club, one of the newest clubs on campus, was organized in the spring of 1964. It was formed for the purpose of recruiting students who are interested in party organization and politics. The Club has actively participated in work conducted by both the Republican State Committee and Republican Headquarters in Burlington and Winooski during election time.

The result of the work done by the members was beneficial to both the state organization and to the members themselves. It gave them a chance to see how campaigns were conducted on both the state and local level and also an opportunity to observe how campaign strategy was formulated. Finally, the members were able to meet and discuss politics with local, state, and national candidates, as well as present political figures.

YOUNG AMERICANS FOR FREEDOM

In January of 1964, a group of conservative minded students organized a Young Americans For Freedom Club at St. Michael's. The group's aim was to strengthen and solidify conservative thinking among the student body. Action in state and local government was their goal. That same spring saw the SMC-YAF plunge into the Vermont Republican Gubernatorial race in support of its candidate. In the national elections (JUST WAIT TILL '68) the YAF'ers backed Barry all the way. On election day the members helped out at the local polls and taxied rural voters to their balloting places.

In its first year at the Hilltop, YAF has sponsored more than a dozen speakers, covering topics from Keynesian economics to social justice. The group hopes for continued success in the future and has already contacted speakers for the 1965-66 academic year.

VARSITY SOCCER

The SMC Soccer team compiled a disappointing one win-seven loss season. However, the coach tried to use his men to the best possible advantage. One strategy of Coach Gingras was to place the experienced players where they were most needed. He took Humberto Cosenza, who had originally been a forward, and placed him in the fullback position. The wisdom of this move soon became apparent. Cosenza had a talent for always knowing where the ball was at all times. He managed to stop many attacks, and with his skill in dribbling and accurate kicks, you could always be sure the ball would be delivered back to the offense. With this type of playing, Humberto easily made the Vermont All-State Soccer Team.

The season began with very few experienced ball players on the club. The first loss to Plattsburg reflected this. As the season progressed, and the booters met stiffer competition, they began to play better. The difference became noticeable when they played Castleton, one of the best small college teams in New England. Although the club lost 2-0, most observers credited this to bad luck in scoring but the overall team play was definitely improving. This fact was evident when the team met nationally ranked Middlebury, who beat us by only two goals. Two games later, SMC downed Lowell Tech by three goals for its first win of the season.

The Knights, now experienced, faced their final game of the season against Nichols College, who, in the past two seasons, has compiled a twenty game winning streak. The Knights were determined but not successful. They lost the game by one goal. With the experience gained this season, the prospects look bright for a successful season next year.

In the game against Vermont Technical College, Robert Winship, with an assist by Pierre Diallo, scored the only goal of the day and so gave the Squires the victory. Timothy Shay displayed great speed and ball control while the insiders, Tom Ford and Peter Cullum, joined Center Pierre Diallo in presuring the V.T.C. defense. Halfbacks Bill Longenecker and David Spah, along with cleanup man John Martin, displayed great determination in supporting the S.M.C. offense. Ray Pentkowski, a superb goal tender, made several exciting saves. INTERCLASS FOOTBALL

Defense was the key to the Intramural Football League as the senior class won the crown after three long years of anticipation.

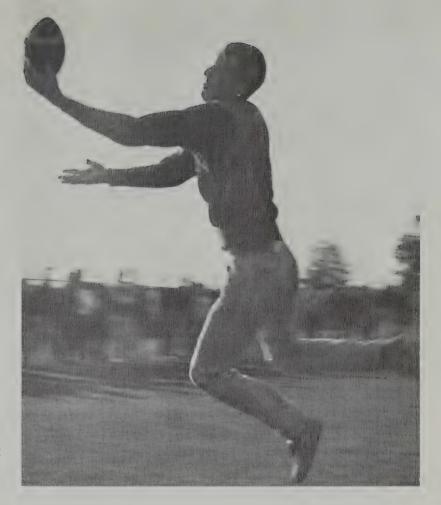

The opener was a typical battle as the seniors managed to overpower a disorganized junior team, 7-0. The sophomores showed why they were to be reckoned with as they impressively disposed of the freshmen, 14-0. The seniors rallied for two easy wins over the frosh and juniors. In their next game, the seniors ran up against a tough sophomore offense and battled to a 13-13 tie. The juniors frustratingly won their first game in three years by defeating a scrappy freshman team, 6-0.

The Sophs, after squeezing by the frosh, readied themselves for their second tilt against the seniors. Once again the last two minutes proved hazardous for the seniors as soph Halfback, Phil Doherty, caught a Brian Murphy aerial for a hard fought 6-0 victory.

From all appearances it seemed the sophs had won the title but the juniors entertained different ideas. Paced by the blocking of Fred Severni, and the passing of Jerry Wisneski, the juniors stunned the sophs 20-12, to hand the seniors the title.

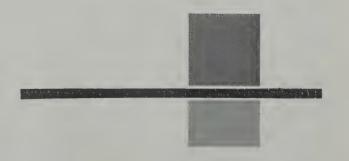

Despite backing into the championship, Mike Tranghese's squad possessed the finest defensive team in the league. The line was anchored by John Goodrow and Gordie Salvan with linebackers John Hartigan and Jim Brinkerhoff proving troublesome to offensive ball carriers.

The seniors' offensive unit was sparked by All-League selections Gus Kupferer and Tom Biuso, along with blocking back Jim Kavanagh, who gave quarterback Bob Colclough great protection to hit receivers Jack Beasley, Frank McKevitt and Bart Nyhan.

"Doc" stands speechless before his admirers in Burlington Auditorium.

"DOC" JACOBS NIGHT

January 23, 1965

On January 23, 1965, two seniors, Joe Ruggiero and Mike Tranghese, successfully staged the biggest night in the history of St. Michael's sports — "Doc" Jacobs Night. "Doc," as he is commonly referred to at the Hilltop, has been athletic director at St. Mike's since 1947. In the 18 short years he has been here he has been an inspiration and guidance to many Michaelmen. In that span he has won 9 State basketball titles (Vermont), 3 NCAA Regional basketball titles and in 1958 he led the famed "Iron Knights" to the NCAA finals. He has won 4 Vermont State titles in golf, and titles in baseball and football. In 1951 he had the only undefeated football team in New England.

Doc Jacobs Night started as a quiet affair to be given in honor of the man who has given so much to us. The outcome however saw the Governor, the Mayor, the Press and many friends as well as three thousand, three hundred people jam Burlington Auditorium in honor of this great man. January 23rd was declared as Doc Jacobs day in Burlington and stories of Doc appeared in every major newspaper in the country. On his night, Doc received 300 telegrams as well as many gifts, plaques and awards. One of these was "Doc's" election to the basketball Hall of Fame; upon this announcement he was given a five minute standing ovation.

During "Doc's" brief speech, he looked at the Michaelmen, both past and present, and said . . . "you're Great." But the great one was being honored that night by the students of SMC. The Burlington Free Press summed up the feelings of all that know "Doc" when it wrote. . . . "where "Doc" Jacobs sits, that is the head of the table."

In a season highlighted by fulfillment of four year dreams, the winningest team in St. Michael's basketball history finished the season ranked fourth in the country. Not until top ranked Evansville defeated the Knights did this dream-like excursion end. The record 21-7.

The season started in gallant fashion as the Knights disposed of New York invaders Clarkson and St. Lawrence rather easily by scores of 109-69 and 89-69.

The Knights extended the winning streak to four by running roughshod over state foe, Norwich, and Yankee conference foe, New Hampshire.

In its first away game of the year the Knights succumbed to hot shooting Holy Cross 99-75 despite Dick Tarrant's fantastic 45 point performance.

Playing in the "big city," the Purple topped N.Y. Tech in a great team effort. The Knights were forced to play this game without the valuable services of Dick Tarrant.

Ed Markey's boys extended their mark to 6-2 by upsetting heavily favored Buffalo in the first round of the LeMoyne Invitational Christmas Tournament. Installed as the favorite the following evening, the Knights dropped the championship game 68-66 to home town host, LeMoyne.

"and always a gentleman"

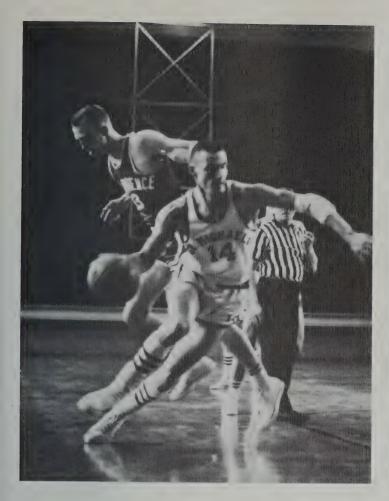

Disappointed but not discouraged, the Knights returned to New York City to face Long Island Univ. In a heart-stopping tilt the Knights dropped a 90-86 overtime decision. The Saints continued the New York jaunt by playing defending Northeast Small College champ Adelphi. In a great offensive exhibition the Knights returned to Burlington with a well earned 97-77 victory.

Back to friendly ground, the Saints responded with five straight victories over St. Anselm's, Icelandic National team, Norwich, St. Anselm's and Middlebury.

Gunning for their seventh consecutive victory, the Knights dropped a hometown 66-65 decision to Le-Moyne. The crowd which had come to see a victory coupled with a successful "Doc" Jacobs night, returned home mournfully.

In the game which gave the Knights its number one ranking in New England, the Knights topped Assumption 99-98 on Bob Kryger's 15 foot overtime jump shot. Worcester fans were given a display of Michaelman spirit.

In a lackadaisical affair the Purple dropped Brandeis despite the absence of Tarrant and Cummins.

After topping Colby at home 87-69 in an important New England clash, the Saints were humiliated 75-72 by cross town rival Vermont. It really was Fuzzy Evans' night!

Determined not to lose its number one ranking, the Saints closed out their regular season with four clutch victories.

First the Saints dropped Merrimack 80-75 in a tough away tilt. Then Middlebury fell rather easily in another away tilt.

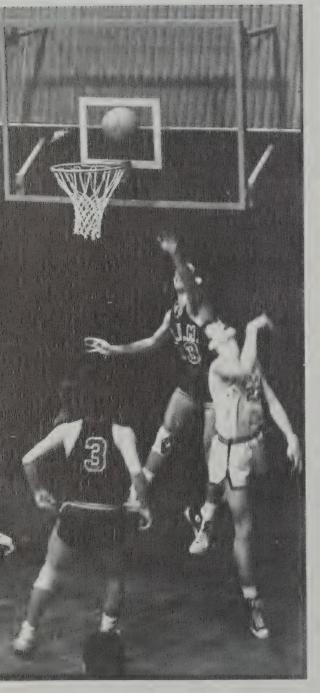

In a big revenge rematch, the Knights proved just how good they were by routing U.V.M. 94-69 before an enthusiastic Auditorium crowd.

The Knights finished the season with a tourney bound victory over Stonehill away. With a regular season mark of 19-5 the Knights realized their work was just beginning.

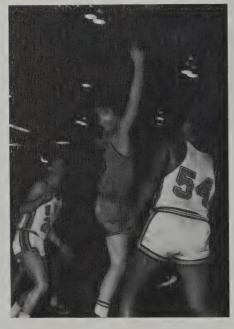

"WE'RE NUMBER

NORTHEASTERN REGIONAL TOURNEY

Making the first Regional Tourney appearance in five years, the Purple Knights provided the fans with the greatest moment by capturing the Northeast Small College regional championship.

The win did not come without some anxious moments, however. In the opening game of the tourney, the Knights overcame a seven point Hartwick lead in the final two minutes to boost itself into the finals against Assumption which later that evening demolished the hometown heroes, Le-Moyne.

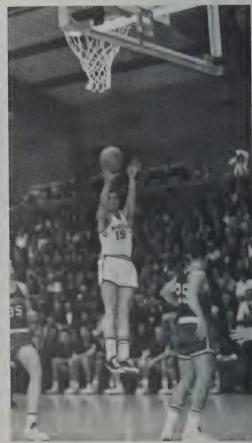

Proving that its earlier season win over Assumption was no chance occurrence, Ed Markey's inspired team jumped off to a big lead which they held onto for an 83-76 Evansville bound victory.

Three Knights, Dick Tarrant, Bill Cummins and Ed Kryger, were named to the All Tourney team as the Green Mountain boys prepared for its trip into Hoosier land.

TOURNAMENT

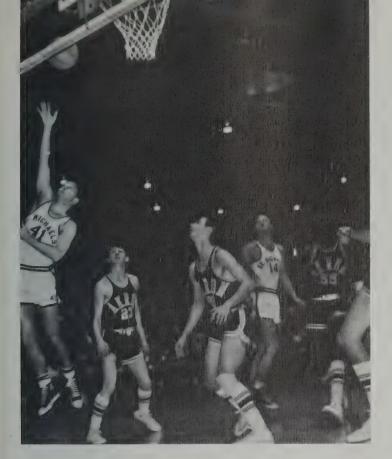

Evansville

"Hoosier Hospitality" is what they called it and St. Mike's found it to be to its liking as the Knights stunned Akron of Ohio in the first round of the National Small College tourney.

The next evening, before 12,000 screaming fans, the Knights fell at the hands of eventual champions, Evansville, 93-70. It was by no means humiliating. The hearts of Indianians everywhere were warmed by the sight of some 300 students from SMC, embracing their ballplayers at the conclusion of the game, even though we lost.

In the consolation game, the Knights dropped a heart breaking 94-86 decision to big North Dakota State. Physically outmanned, the Saints were unable to cope with the Dakotans' size.

Saint Michael's Rich Tarrant closed out a brillant career by being named first team All Tourney while "Mr. Clutch," Bill Cummins, was named to the second team.

The season which began back in December, concluded at the Burlington airport where 500 fans greeted the conquering heroes, who were truly the fourth best team in the nation.

Rich Tarrant

was selected on May 6, 1965 as the fourth draft pick of the World Champion Boston Celtics.

NEW ENGLAND COACH OF THE YEAR EDWARD D. MARKEY

In his first full year of varsity basketball coaching at St. Michael's College, Ed Markey hit the jackpot. His 1965 edition of the Purple Knights took the Vermont title, won the Northeast NCAA title and were crowned the top college division team by the E.C.A.C.

Markey, a 1951 alumnus and three year star at St. Michael's, served his apprenticeship under Athletic Director George (Doc) Jacobs. His freshman teams over eight seasons won 70 and lost 15. When Jacobs, during the 1963-64 season, decided to devote full time to his Athletic Directorship, Markey finished the season, winning 16 and losing 6 along the way.

This year's team, winning 22 and losing 7, went all the way to the semifinals in NCAA play before bowing to the undefeated host team, the Evansville Aces. That gave him an overall record of 108 wins and 28 losses.

The record is all the more remarkable because of the calibre of teams that St. Michael's met on its way to the NCAA crown. In a UPI poll, the New England coaches voted him "Coach of the Year." A native of West New York, N.J., Markey is a member of the famous family that sent Earle — now the Rev. Earle Markey, S.J. — to Holy Cross and Dave to Canisius. At St. Michael's, Markey was also a crack infielder on the baseball team.

After graduation, he became regimental athletic supervisor for the 364th Regiment at Fort Dix, managing a team that won the First Army title in 1954. Since returning to St. Michael's, he has earned his Master's Degree with a major in History. He is married, lives in South Burlington with his wife, son and daughter. Next to winning ball games, his chief hobby is photography.

FROSH BASKETBALL

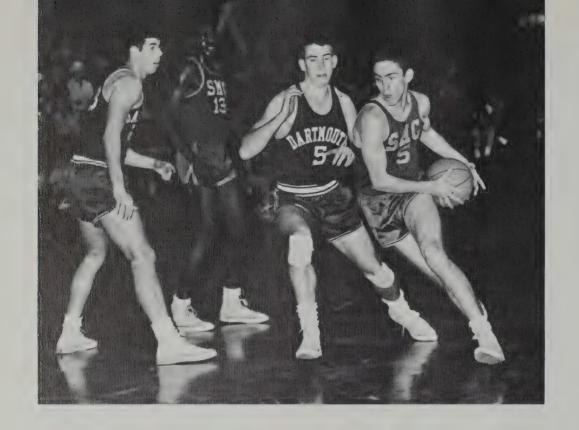

The SMC Squires ended the season with an overwhelming 110-65 defeat over the St. Albans Radar Station and a record of 9 wins and 4 losses.

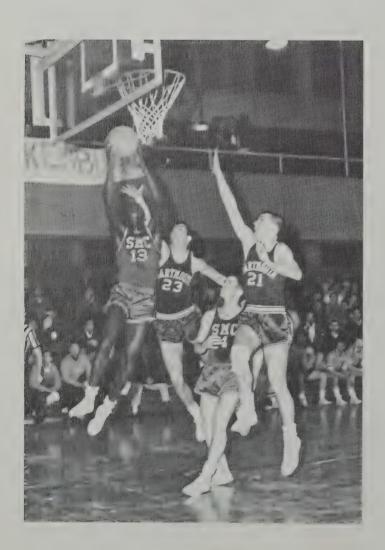

Under the careful coaching of Student-Coach Robert Etherson the five starting Squires finished the season with shooting percentages in double figures. The team was led by Rick Brower with an 18.1 average. Following right behind were Dave Gleason, 14.4, Bob Joyce, 13.9, Dick Navin, 13.5, and Ralph Coleman with 11.1 points per game.

The Squires lost their first game to Champlain College, but came back with enough skill and experience to win six in a row. These wins included one-sided contests over Dartmouth and the University of Vermont. After them, the team met some tough breaks and took three straight defeats on the chin. Losing some battles but not the war, the Squires bounced back to win their last three games, thus finishing a very fine season which says a great deal for the team and for Coach Bob Etherson.

VARSITY SKI TEAM

The St. Michael's Ski Team compiled an impressive season record, defeating twenty-one of its twenty-seven competitors, while setting a new win total for the college.

The Nordic team was composed of seniors Jim and Jerry Geier and John Goodrow, while the Alpine team consisted of Captain Mike Welch and sophomore Dave Irish. The rest of the squad was filled by sophs Dave Gearin and John Woodworth and Mike Murphy, a junior.

Coach Greg McClallen started getting the team in shape during early October and continued the rigid training schedule until the first snowfall when the team took to the slopes of Mount Mansfield. From there, it went into actual competition and posted a fine record, winning over such perennial leaders as Syracuse and Cornell.

VARSITY RIFLE

Led by Air Force Sgt. Chet Paul, the SMC varsity rifle team ended a season of tough competition in the New England Intercollegiate Rifle League with a 1 win 4 loss record. While easily outshooting Bowdoin, the Knights dropped close decisions to MIT, Dartmouth, Nasson and Norwich.

Highlighting the series of matches was Captain Bob Hladik's consistent sharpshooting, giving him a team high average of 249.5, for the year. Bob was also honored with the Dave O'Mara Riflery award given annually to the R.O.T.C. cadet maintaining the highest average among the shooting cadets.

Also indispensable in their contributions to the team effort was the accurate shooting displayed by seniors Fred Speckels and Jim Whitman as well as juniors Mike Mitiguy and Paul Blake.

Bright spots for the senior shooters included victories in the X111 U.S. Army Corps matches held in '61 and '62 and also the Secretary of the Air Force Championship award in New England also won in 1962.

GOLDEN GLOVES

Vermont boxing fans were once again thrilled by the performances of St. Mike's boys in the ring. Entrants in the 1965 Vermont Golden Gloves Tournament included Seniors John Goodrow and Tom Colangelo, Juniors Pete Sheehan and Dan Boyajian, and Freshman Mike Armstrong.

Inexperienced John Goodrow showed his physical prowess by winning the heavyweight crown and taking home the "Outstanding Novice Award."

Mike Armstrong proved himself to be the man who went places in 1965. He was not satisfied with capturing the Vermont lightweight title and the "Outstanding Boxer Award." Mike ventured to Lowell, Massachusetts, where the New England Regionals were being held, and again won the laurels in his division. From there, he traveled to Kansas for the National Tournament, where he was eliminated in the first round by a very heartbreaking decision. Good luck next year, Mike!

The seniors regained the intramural basketball crown which they lost the previous season in the final game. An outstanding team effort was a contributing factor in their wins over some very stiff competition. The sophs were the biggest threat for the seniors. Although considerably slower than the other teams, the senors' over-all ability to get the ball inside made up the difference. They managed a couple of easy wins in the first half of the season but lost in the second half which forced a playoff with the sophomores. In the playoff game, the superb play-making and shooting of Dan Connelly, the league's Most Valuable Player, was a tremendous asset in defeating the sophs in what was the most exciting game of the year. John Goodrow, Mike Hadlock, Joe Kliminski, Mark Peacock, Tom Edwards, were also very instrumental in the final triumph. Ed Kryger was the Coach of the Year with brother Bob coming in second.

SUNDAY LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP GOES TO SENIORS

Saint Michael's College held its second consecutive Sunday League this year. It started with a 24 team field in a double elimination tournament until there were twelve teams remaining. These twelve teams then played a single elimination tournament until only two teams remained from the original field of 24, the Jocks and the Fabulous Five.

The championship game was won by the Jocks, 38-35, in a closely contested battle. The League was a huge success, putting over 240 ballplayers into action.

BASEBALL - 1965

Defensive disappointments, a lack of pitching depth, injuries and some offensive surprises succinctly sum up a rather frustrating 1965 baseball season for the Purple Knights. Finishing with a 3 won and 8 lost record, the Knights ended the season with successive wins over Norwich and Lowell Tech.

An infield of Kliminski, Juall, Lapointe and Bafundo was expected to carry the defensive load. This group displayed a sporadic competence early in the season. The overall inconsistency in this phase of the game is readily seen in the .907 Fielding Percentage. Errors directly contributed to three mid-season losses in which thirteen of fourteen runs scored were unearned.

The pitching picture depended on the left and right arms of John Carcich $(1\cdot4)$ and Joe Barnes $(1\cdot4)$ with Dave McAndrew $(1\cdot0)$ filling the role of reliefer. Although their records are unimpressive, they deserved better support.

Injuries, always the cause of unforeseen problems, hurt the Purple in the catching department. Bob Colclough, senior catcher did a commendable job despite an injured finger which seriously affected his throwing hand during the last half of the season. Rich Cervizzi, Bob's understudy, had his catching availability cut short after getting spiked in the Dartmouth game.

The big surprise of the season was the tremendous offensive output of the Knights. Hitting for a great .271 team average, the Michaelmen had six players with ten or more hits. Leading the way was senior captain Joe Kliminski with a classy .407 average, 18 hits and 10 RBl's. Others slugging in the .300 level were Butch Lapointe (.369) and Ken Juall (.333) Phil Doherty's 14 RBl's, .273 BA and outstanding center fielding along with John Ryan's .286 are not to be overlooked. Senior Joe Zadrosny did a competent job in handling the tough right field position. His consistant play and competitive attitude should not go unacknowledged.

The graduation of Kliminski, Colclough and Zadrosny will leave serious holes to fill in the 1966 nine. Their qualities of leadership, dedication and fine example will be difficult to replace.

Mr. William Burke

John Keenan

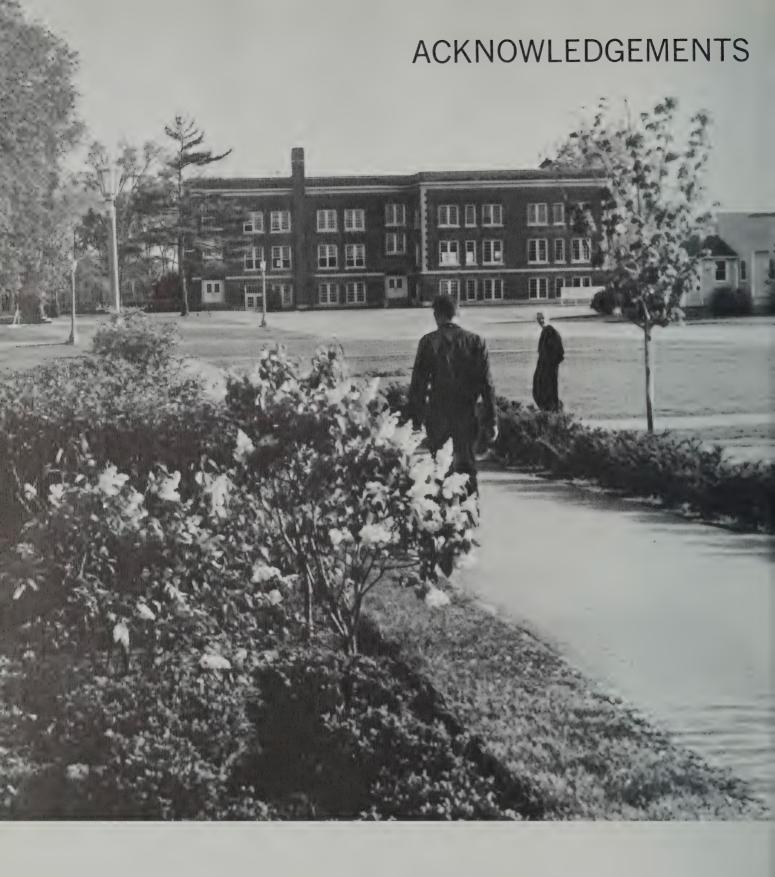

The wind flapped loose, the wind was still, Shaken out dead from tree and hill: I had walked on at the wind's will, — I sat now, for the wind was still.

Between my knees my forehead was, — My lips, drawn in, said not Alas! My Hair was over in the grass, My naked ears heard the day pass.

My eyes, wide open had the run
Of some ten weeds to fix upon;
Among those few, out of the sun,
The woodspurge flowered, three cups in one.

From perfect grief there need not be Wisdom or even memory:
One thing I learnt remains to me. —
The woodspurge has a cup of three.

Dante Gabriel Rossetti

Perhaps one of the most difficult tasks in producing a yearbook is saying "thank you" to all those who have helped to make it possible. I cannot say enough of the staff members who heve spent many diligent and tiring hours in preparing their sections and rushing to meet the deadlines. It is they who deserve all the credit for whatever laurels this annual might receive.

My sincere appreciation is also extended to Mr. John Donoghue, our moderator, for his assistance and patience throughout the year. Special thanks is also extended to E. J. Kirk, the yearbook photographer, and to Father Leon Paulin for the use of his photographic facilities.

Last but not least in line for recognition is Mr. Stan Sankowski, representative from American Yearbook Company and special advisor to the staff. Stan has been a tremendous asset to us all, having spent many frustrating hours in helping us meet our deadlines and putting up with our varying moods and specific demands. Without his assistance, this annual would not stand out above others as we hope it now does. Thanks Stan!

My sincere apology to anyone whom I might have neglected to thank. There have been so many who have contributed their time that it is difficult to name them all. However, I once again thank everyone who donated his time and hope that you all will enjoy the immeasurable amount of work that the 1965 SHIELD contains.
